11/18/13	[REDACTED] email to Sue	[REDACTED] emailed Sue regarding what he felt was a "really nasty" posting outside a faculty member's office in Bond Hall. [REDACTED] expressed respecting that everyone has a right to their own opinion, but that "some very politically and socially charged content" outside faculty offices has made him feel uncomfortable. [REDACTED] email stated that the posting he finds most offensive is one he passes "nearly every day on the way to and from class." [REDACTED] attached a picture of the posting, which he described as "a picture of several women of similar race and age along with a caption mocking them and claiming they lack individuality. I find it really distasteful and feel as if there are some greater undertones of sexism, agism, and racial prejudice." [REDACTED] said he "would really appreciate it if someone would talk to [the faculty member] and the school's staff as a whole."
	Sue email to [REDACTED]	Sue emailed [REDACTED] asking him to call so EOO could better understand the nature of his concern. [REDACTED] did not respond.
